

A NEW DECLARATION AND ENGAGEMENT
O F
The Army and Forces in IRELAND,

Declaring their Resolution to Adhere and Acquiesce in the Proceeding of the PARLIAMENT.

EE cannot but take notice with grief, That notwithstanding the Declarations published and attested by several of us, wherein we have asserted to all the world, our Resolutions to adhere constantly and faithfully to the PARLIAMENT of England in their fulness and freedom, divers Ill-affected persons have endeavoured to foment Divisions amongst the Officers and Soldiers of this Army, by pretending Designes to be in some of them to divide from England; Which we are so far from Intending, That we do hereby Engage to Acquiesce cheerfully in What the present COUNCIL OF STATE, or the PARLIAMENT of England, or those deriving Authority from them, or either of them, shall Determine, in order to a well grounded Peace and general Settlement of these NATIONS; and to maintain the same (as God shall enable us) with the hazard of our Lives and Estates against all Opposers.

Dated at Dublin the 13 of Aprill, 1660.
